

New Book Release by CANADIAN MULTIFAITH FEDERATION (CMF)

Multifaith Perspectives in Spiritual & Religious Care: Change, Challenge and Transformation

About the Book: CMF invited a diverse group of scholars/practitioners from Canada, UK and USA to submit original chapters for the book. A tremendous and quick response followed.

Scope of the Book: A comprehensive range of original chapters written by scholars and practitioners on spiritual and religious care, chaplaincy, integrating theory and practices in many sectors. This single volume has five extensive sections that can be used as a text, resource, training, guide and reference for chaplains, spiritual care providers, students, and other caregiving practitioners. A must for care providing institutions, caregiving professionals, faith based practitioners, schools, colleges, universities, and libraries.

- 78 original and ground-breaking chapters
- Additional 52 chapters revised with new content or reprinted content
- Ten sectors or types of SRC, Chaplaincy represented
- Forewords by Elaine Nagy, President Canadian Association for Spiritual Care/Association Canadienne de Soins Spirituels (CASC/ACSS), & Rabbi Ron Weiss, Director of Chaplaincy Services, Jewish and Family Services (JF&CS).
